PROXY STATEMENT

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of J & J Snack Foods Corp. ("J & J") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Thursday, February 8, 2001 at 10:00 A.M., E.S.T., at The Cherry Hill Hilton, Route 70 and Cuthbert Road, Cherry Hill, New Jersey 08034 and at any postponement or adjournment thereof. The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy will first be sent or given to shareholders is December 20, 2000. Sending a signed proxy will not affect the shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person since the proxy is revocable. The grant of a later proxy revokes this proxy. The presence at the meeting of a shareholder who has given a proxy does not revoke the proxy unless the shareholder files written notice of the revocation with the secretary of the meeting prior to the voting of proxy or votes the shares subject to the proxy by written ballot.

The expense of the proxy solicitation will be borne by J & J. In addition to solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited in person or by telephone, telegraph or teletype by directors, officers or employees of J & J without additional compensation. J & J is required to pay the reasonable expenses incurred by record holders of the common stock, no par value per share, of J & J (the "Common Stock") who are brokers, dealers, banks or voting trustees, or other nominees, for mailing proxy material and annual shareholder reports to any beneficial owners of Common Stock they hold of record, upon request of such record holders.

A form of proxy is enclosed. If properly executed and received in time for voting, and not revoked, the enclosed proxy will be voted as indicated in accordance with the instructions thereon. If no directions to the contrary are indicated, the persons named in the enclosed proxy will vote all shares of Common Stock for the election of the nominees for director.

The enclosed proxy confers discretionary authority to vote with respect to any and all of the following matters that may come before the meeting: (i) matters which J & J does not know about a reasonable time before the proxy solicitation, and are presented at the meeting; (ii) approval of the minutes of a prior meeting of shareholders, if such approval does not amount to ratification of the action taken at the meeting; (iii) the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve; and (iv) matters incident to the conduct of the meeting. In connection with such matters, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

J & J had 8,414,793 shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on December 4, 2000 the record date. The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast on a particular matter constitutes a quorum for the purpose of considering such matter. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on each matter which may be brought before the Meeting. The election of directors will be determined by a plurality vote and the nominee receiving the most "for" votes will be elected. Approval of any other proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares cast on the proposal. An abstention, withholding of authority to vote for or broker non-vote, therefore, will not have the same legal effect as an "against" vote and will not be counted in determining whether the proposal has received the required shareholder vote. Shareholders do not have approval or dissenter rights with respect to election of Directors.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS
INFORMATION CONCERNING NOMINEE FOR ELECTION TO BOARD

Two (2) directors are expected to be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve on the Board of Directors of J & J until the expiration of their terms as indicated below and until their successors are elected and have qualified.

The following table sets forth information concerning J & J's nominees for election to the Board of Directors. If the nominees become unable or for good cause will not serve, the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote in accordance with their best judgment for the election of such substitute nominee as shall be designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors of J & J expects the nominees to be willing and able to serve.

401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

J & J maintains a 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan for the benefit of eligible employees. J & J's contribution is based upon the individual employee's contribution. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2000 contributions in the amount of $819,000 were made to the 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of directors who are not employees of J & J and is responsible for developing and making recommendations to the Board with respect to J & J's executive compensation programs. In addition, the Compensation Committee, pursuant to authority delegated by the Board, determines on an annual basis the compensation to be paid to the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee neither reviews nor approves the decisions of the Chief Executive Officer with respect to the compensation of the other executive officers.

J & J's compensation is comprised of base salary, bonus, long term incentive compensation in the form of stock options, and various benefits generally available to all full-time employees of the Company, including participation in group medical and life insurance plans and the 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan.

Base Salary

Base salary levels for J & J's executive officers are competitively set relative to companies in the food industry. In obtaining competitive information, the Company informally reviews newspaper and trade journal reports and information gathered from discussion with others in the industry. No formal survey is undertaken.

Bonuses

Annual performance standards for each executive officer's area of responsibility are established by the Chief Executive Officer for other executive officers. In some cases, bonuses are linked primarily to achieving increases from the prior year's sales and/or earnings. In other cases, bonuses reflect a more subjective view of an individual's performance.

The bonus for Mr. Shreiber was not linked to any specific formula. The Compensation Committee considers both the long term aspect of the Company's performance and year to year results. Among the items considered by the Committee were J & J's Sales, Operating Income, Operating Income as a percent of sales, Net Earnings, Earnings Per Share, Return on Equity and Stock Price. These items were reviewed for the previous year and for a five year period. The Committee reviewed and considered published reports about the compensation levels of the 100 largest public companies in the Delaware Valley. The Committee also considers matters which are likely to have a long term impact on the Company but may not be reflected on the annual financial statements.

The above factors were considered subjectively without specific weight to any item.

Stock Options

The Company uses the Stock Option Plan as its long-term incentive plan for executive officers and key employees. The objectives of this Plan are to align the long term interests of executive officers and shareholders by creating a direct link between executive compensation and shareholder return and to enable executives to develop and maintain a significant long term equity interest in J & J. Options given to the Chief Executive Officer are fixed according to a Nonstatutory Plan. Options given to other executive officers are recommended by the Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Compensation Committee. On May 1, 2000 and on September 27, 2000, options were awarded to various employees at the then price of $15.9375 and $12.75, respectively.

Composition

There shall be a committee of the board of directors (the "Board") to be known as the audit committee which, no later than June 14, 2001, shall have at least three (3) members, comprised solely of independent directors, as such term is defined in Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers' ("NASD") listing standards, subject to the exception in Rule 4310(c)(26)(B)(ii) of the NASD listing standards.

Each member of the audit committee shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the company's balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement or will become able to do so within a reasonable period of time after his or her appointment to the audit committee. In addition, at least one member of the audit committee shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities.

The Board shall elect or appoint a chairman of the audit committee who will have authority to act on behalf of the audit committee between meetings.

Responsibilities

The responsibilities of the audit committee are as follows:

- o Ensure its receipt from the outside auditor of formal written statement, delineating all relationships between the outside auditor and the company consistent with the Independence Standards Board Standard 1.
- o Actively engage in a dialogue with the outside auditor with respect to any disclosed relationships or services that may impact the objectivity and independence of the outside auditor and be responsible for taking, or recommending that the board of directors take, appropriate action to oversee the independence of the outside auditor.
- o In view of the outside auditor's ultimate accountability to the Board and the audit committee, as representatives of the shareholders, the audit committee, acting together with the Board, has the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate, and, where appropriate, replace the outside auditor (or nominate an outside auditor for shareholder approval in any proxy statement).
- o Review with the outside auditor, the company's internal auditor (if any), and financial and accounting personnel, the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls of the company, and elicit any recommendations for the improvement of such internal control procedures or particular areas where new or more detailed controls or procedures are desirable.
- o Consider, in consultation with the outside auditor and management of the company, the audit scope and procedures.
- o Review the financial statements contained in the annual report to shareholders with management and the outside auditor to determine that the outside auditor is satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the shareholders.
- o Meet with the internal auditor (if any), outside auditor or the management privately to discuss any matters that the audit committee, the internal auditor (if any), the outside auditor or the management believe should be discussed privately with the audit committee.
- o Review and reassess the adequacy of the committee's charter annually.

- o Make such other recommendations to the Board on such matters, within the scope of its functions, as may come to its attention and which in its discretion warrant consideration by the Board.

Limitations

The audit committee is responsible for the duties set forth in this charter but is not responsible for either the preparation of the financial statements or the auditing of the financial statements. Management has the responsibility for preparing the financial statements and implementing internal controls and the independent accountants have the responsibility for auditing the financial statements and monitoring the effectiveness of the internal controls. The review of the financial statements by the audit committee is not of the same quality as the audit performed by the independent accountants. In carrying out its responsibilities, the audit committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to a changing environment.
